11. (Unclassified - LLM) Called Libby Reynolds, in the office of Representative Jack Kemp (R., N. 12. (Internal Use Only - LLM) [ ] and I met with Messrs. Wattles, Fisher, [ ] DDS; Warner, OGC; and [ ] IG, concerning the implications for the Agency of S. 2515, Equal Employment Opportunity Enforcement Act of 1971. It was agreed that Mr. Fisher would contact the Civil Service Commission to get the Administration's position on the federal employees section of the measure and their reaction if the section was modified to apply solely to the competitive service.

13. (Unclassified - LLM) Talked with Bob Vagley, Director of the House General Subcommittee on Labor, concerning the prospects for equal employment opportunity legislation. He said he believed the Congress would approve a bill and that 90 per cent of what is ultimately approved would come from the Senate version. After our problem was reviewed briefly with him, he said he was in agreement with our position; that he felt we could count on support in the House committee in conference, but that we should also make our case in the Senate, and he suggested that we touch base with Gerald Feder, Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Labor, and Eugene Mittelman, General Counsel of the Minority Staff, Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee.

14. [redacted] During my conversation with Representative Lucien Nedzi, he raised the question of a newspaper story in the Washington Post regarding an Air America helicopter being shot down in Burma. I explained the helicopter was on a charter mission for AID and engaged in a purely peaceful mission to provide refugee supplies in Laos when it accidentally strayed a short distance over the Burmese border and was forced down.

8. [ ] Met with Mr. Russ Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, and received from him, with thanks, the book "Water on the Brain" by Compton MacKenzie which was mentioned in the meeting between Representative Nedzi (D., Mich.) and Secretary Packard, DOD. With regard to the conference meeting on the Military Procurement bill, Mr. Blandford noted that although he has not been sitting in on the sessions, the two Committees are still far apart on many of the differences between the House and Senate versions.

Mr. Blandford reviewed the biographic material on the members of the Board of National Estimates and suggested that they might well be stamped official use only to insure that necessary changes could be made in the event of determination that the biographies should be included in the Nedzi Committee report. The biographic sketches were furnished to the Committee as a followup to the meeting at Headquarters with the Nedzi Subcommittee.
